

Doris Strohm
Police Officer / Program Administrative Assistant
Philadelphia Police Explorer Cadet Program

Police officer Doris Strohm was appointed to the Philadelphia Police Academy on January 22, 1996. Upon graduating the police academy, Police Officer Strohm was assigned to the 24th District then transferred to the 26th District 2 and 3 squads where she served the citizens of Philadelphia as a patrol officer and inside the operations room. In 2002 Police Officer Strohm was transferred to the 8th Police District where she worked as a patrol officer and on the burglary detail. Police Officer Strohm has received Officer of the Month Awards while in both districts and the Captains Choice Award in the 8th District.

In 2002 she began volunteering with the Philadelphia Police Explorer Cadet program at the Police Academy. In 2008 police Officer Strohm was transferred to the Police Explorer Cadet Program after Police Commissioner Ramsey made it a unit where she is still currently assigned. Police Officer Strohm's four children have all attended the Police Explorer Cadet Program.

Police Officer Strohm has received external training in various areas.

Feb. 17, 2009 – Feb. 20, 2009 – Sex Crimes Investigations, Gloucester County Police Academy

Feb. 25, 2009 – Investigating and Prosecuting Child Sex Trafficking, U.S. Department of Justice

Nov. 4, 2009 – Nov. 5, 2009 – Child Abuses Investigators Awareness, MAGLOCLEN

Dec. 16, 2010 – Protecting Our Children: A Comprehensive Training Program for Law Enforcement,
National Center for Missing and Exploited Children

Feb. 5, 2011 – Weapons of Mass Destruction Radiological/ Nuclear Training for FEMA, Department of Homeland Security

March, 31, 2009 – General Instructor, Municipal Police Officers' Education and Training Commission

Jan. 28, 2013 – Media Violence and the Effects on Society – MAGLOCLEN

Mar. 5, 2013 – Mar. 6, 2013 – Protective Measures Course – Department of Homeland Security

April 22, 2013 – Why Teens Kill: Warning Signs, Causes, Triggers and Prevention – MAGLOCLEN

Feb. 11, 2015 – Recreational Vehicle Training – Police Explorer Cadet Program

"To be a mentor to someone is to change the world, if only to that one person". D. Strohm